

SEEDS OF RADICAL EDUCATION AT THE COADY INSTITUTE

AN ANTHOLOGY OF PERSONAL ESSAYS

CONTENTS

	Foreword	ix
	Leona English
1	Introduction: Planting Seeds of Radical Education – David Fletcher, Debbie Castle, Olga Gladkikh	1
	PHILOSOPHY, PRINCIPLES AND VALUES
2	What’s the Purpose of Education: To Change Society or to Fit into it? – Olga Gladkikh	11
3	Towards an Abundant Life for All through Transformative Adult Education – Wilf Bean	21
4	The Tin Room – A Safe Space for Learning and Change – Emily Sikazwe	35
5	Catalyzing Learning about Gender in a Diverse Environment – David Fletcher	45
6	Promoting Active Citizenship, Agency and Voice through Power Analysis – Olga Gladkikh	61
	FACILITATING CHANGE PROCESSES
7	Leadership with a Difference: Flavouring Your Own Transformation – David Fletcher and Anuj Jain	71
8	Community Conflict Transformation and Peacebuilding: From the Inside Out – maureen st. clair	87
9	Ambassadors for Change: Walking with Emerging Women Leaders – Debbie Castle and Emily Sikazwe	99
10	Learning to Facilitate: Blending the Philosophical and the Practical – David Fletcher and natalie (natty) abdou	113
11	The Struggle for Health: A Struggle for Justice – Colleen Cameron	127

12	Learning Organizations and Change: When Learning Matters – Debbie Castle	139
13	Appreciating Indigenous Knowledges: Opening Spaces for Learning and Unlearning – Bernard Y. Guri and David Fletcher	153
14	Money Matters – Anuj Jain	171
SPREADING THE SEEDS
15	Weaving the Fabric: Co-Curating Participatory Community Learning Spaces – natalie (natty) abdou	187
16	Information Activism: Transforming Power Relations in the Library – Sue Adams	199
17	We Were All a Community of Learners – Janet MacDonald	209
18	From Participant to Teaching Associate: My Experiential Learning Journey – Sam Madesi	219
19	From Classroom to Network: The Egypt Coady Grads Network Experience – Mary Ramsis	231
20	Closing Thoughts: An Invitation to Plant Seeds – Olga Gladkikh, Debbie Castle, David Fletcher	241
	Editors and Essayists	247
	Acknowledgements	259
	Endnotes for “Between the Essay” Quotes	260